

Keizzy Dominique P. Alvarado

keizzyalvarado@gmail.com

+63 906-796-6325

RESUME SUMMARY: Innovative and versatile Senior High School student aspiring to be a video game designer who is driven to assist in providing a game favored by its audience. Can collaborate with team members and communicate efficiently. Proficient in handling multiple works while under pressure. Skilled in providing ideas and bringing them to life through concept art and writing storyline.

SKILLS:

- Has experience in coding using different coding languages (Java and HTML):
 - Learned coding outside of the required curriculum in Junior High School through the use of free, accessible, and reliable sources online.
- Team player:
 - Can collaborate and communicate efficiently and do assigned tasks on time.
- Field knowledge:
 - Has experience in testing out games quickly in different genres to evaluate its different aspects. Is also knowledgeable in current trends in video games to ensure the launch of the game is successful.
- Can design characters and assist with concept art in developing the game:
 - Is experienced in sketching various things such as characters and concept art.
- Can write a storyline if needed for the game depending on its genre:
 - Experienced in writing plots in different genres. Additionally, can also scan a video games storyline and look for plot holes, ensuring that the story is well-received by audiences.

EDUCATION:

- Senior High School Graduate – Manila Cathedral School
- Junior High School – University of Santo Tomas (Graduated with high honors)
- Elementary – Star Kids Development and Learning Center (Graduated as 3rd Honor)
- Nursery to Preparatory – Gidel Child Development and Learning Center (Batch Valedictorian)